

EMERGENCY CHILD CARE FOR ESSENTIAL WORKERS

Are you an essential worker who lives or works in King County AND you need child care to be able to do your job? If the answer is YES, King County is here to help you access free emergency child care.

You will need to provide this info:

VERIFICATION OF EMPLOYMENT:

Copy must include name of the employee and employer, and the physical address of workplace.

Submit ONE from this list:

- Work ID badge
- Email from a work address with name and contact information in the signature
- Business card or paystub
- Work schedule with employer visible.

VERIFICATION OF ADDRESS:

(Required if you work in the City of Seattle OR outside of King County)

Submit ONE from this list:

- Utility bill (gas, water, garbage, light, electrical, cable, landline phone)
 - Home/Renter's Insurance
 - Mortgage document
- OR

Submit TWO from this list:

- Insurance document (health, car, etc.)
- Benefits document (DSHS, SSI, paystub)
- Financial document (bank statement, retirement, credit card statement)
- Other bills or Driver's License
- Lease or Housing Agency letter

FOR THOSE WHO LIVE OR WORK IN KING COUNTY, OUTSIDE SEATTLE:

If you are interested in accessing the free emergency child care slots, please call the Child Care Aware of Washington Family Center at 1-800-446-1114 to reach staff who will conduct a phone intake with you!

After the intake, a resources specialist will work with you to match you with an eligible child care provider that meets your family's needs. The County and its partners are working quickly, and hope to have child care available by mid-April.

FOR THOSE WHO LIVE OR WORK IN CITY OF SEATTLE:

The City of Seattle is rolling out an Emergency Child Care program to support first responders and essential workers. If you are an essential worker living or working in the City of Seattle, please fill out an interest form.

Documentation must be no more than three months old, include the name of the employee, and cannot be envelopes or personal correspondence. If you are experiencing homelessness or otherwise unable to verify your home address, please let us know and we will provide alternative means of verification.

You can expedite the intake and matching process by sending the required verification documents to subsidy@childcare.org.